

Greece's Cyclades Islands: Naxos & Paros with Angel

9 days | 12 days with Crete & Athens extension | Sep 03 2025—Sep 11 2025

If you've heard of the islands of Mykonos and Santorini, you already know of the Cyclades. But what about Naxos and Paros? With all the dazzling whites and soothing blues of its famous siblings—and only a fraction of the tourist traffic—they'll rapidly become some of your favorite destinations. Begin this small group tour in Athens, cradle of Western civilization, before zipping off to vineyard-covered Paros. Then, sail to Naxos and tour its olive mills and villages before making your way home. Or, get even more out of your time in the sun with an optional stay on historic Crete, and stand in the shadows of the legendary Minoan civilization.

Day 3: Food of Athens Walking Tour

From $95.00 . Visit the link above for pricing info. (4 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Spend the afternoon in the vibrant Psyri neighborhood, which is known for its galleries, boutiques, and delicious foods from all over the country. Join your local guide in Monastiraki Square for an introduction to the neighborhood, which is often considered the city's melting pot thanks to its variety of cultures. Visit a historic Athenian bakery that's famous for its koulouri—bagel-like baked goods sprinkled with sesame seeds—and learn about the health benefits of the tiny, tasty, nutty-flavored seeds. Then, sit down at a classic Greek cafe, where you'll learn about local eating and drinking customs as you share plates of local specialties with your fellow travelers. Next, enjoy a little caffeine jolt with a coffee or iced cappuccino before picking up a box of fresh loukoumades, or donut balls coated with honey and nutella. Wrap up the afternoon at the Metropolitan Cathedral, where you'll enjoy tastings of olive oil, balsamic vinegar, ouzo, mastiha, loukoumi, and—of course—baklava. You'll be sure to leave with a stomach full of Greek goodies.

through tiny squares and by quaint cafes. Visit the Apeiranthos Women's Traditional Crafts Cooperative to learn how the women who work there produce traditional woven textiles. This handicraft has been passed from generation to generation, and you'll see the loom they use to make the traditional pieces. Then, enjoy an included lunch served with local wine at a nearby tavern. The day ends with a visit to Vallindras Distillery in the village of Halki. You'll take a tour of the distillery and learn about the production of kitron. This liquor is made from citron, a citrusy fruit that's similar to a lemon, but is less bitter. You'll enjoy a tasting of this traditional island liquor before heading back to your hotel. Please note: The hike is 60–90 minutes long over a hilly dirt and rock path with uneven terrain and lots of steps.

Extension excursion options

Day 5: Paros Boat Cruise & Snorkeling

From $179.00 . Visit the link above for pricing info. (7 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

Head to the port in Paros and board a catamaran to cruise to the nearby islands of Antiparos and Despotiko. You'll enjoy swimming and snorkeling at the picture-perfect Blue Lagoon on Antiparos, as well as in local sea caves, at the uninhabited Despotiko island, and on the idyllic Faneromeni Beach. A full Greek barbecue lunch of pork, chicken, and fish souvlaki paired with vegetables will be served aboard the boat. You'll also enjoy unlimited wine, beer, water, and soft drinks. After spending a full day sailing, island hopping, and taking in the beautiful coastal scenery of the Cyclades Islands, dock at the port in Paros and make your way back to your hotel. Please note: We recommend packing a bathing suit, sunscreen, and towel. Snorkeling equipment is provided. This excursion is seasonal and runs from early-May through the end of September. It's also weather-dependent.
